

PERSONNEL

Endorsement of Commercial Products or Services

In general employees shall not recommend any commercial products or services. Principals and supervisors with approval of the superintendent may distribute literature to employees concerning insurance plans or other employee benefit programs of general interest. Such distribution is not to be construed as an endorsement or recommendation of the plan.

Adopted by School Board: March 12, 1991